

Software Developer (m/f/x)

SKILLS

- At least 3 years of experience of software development in a security context
- Experienced in software development using microkernels
- Experienced in developing high secure software for embedded applications
- Experience in cryptography is a plus
- Experience in distributed systems or cloud applications is a plus
- Highly motivated to develop high secure solutions for embedded applications
- M.Sc. or PhD in information technologies

TASKS

- Specify software components based upon customer requirements
- Development of embedded software in C/C++
- Development of driver software
- Analyze software design and implementations in order to optimize security aspects
- Identification and fixing of bugs