

System Engineer (m/f/x)

SKILLS

- Experienced in IT-Sec solution specification and design
- Ability to transfer customer inputs or market requirements into a technical specification
- Ideally experienced with microkernels
- Fast learner who is able to act on different abstraction layers
- Highly motivated to develop high secure solutions for embedded applications
- Strong communication skills
- M.Sc. or PhD in information technologies or electrical engineering

TASKS

- Identify technical solutions for customer issues together with a team of experts
- Discuss technical alternatives and decide for the most appropriate together with the team
- Specify the technical solution
- Accompany the development of solutions according to different certification standards
- Support the team wherever necessary