

Teamlead Software Development (m/f/x)

SKILLS

- At least 5 years of experience of software development in a security context
- Experience in technical lead positions
- Ability to specify technical low level tasks based upon high level requirements
- Experienced in embedded software development (preferably with microkernels)
- Highly motivated to develop high secure solutions for embedded applications
- Strong communication skills
- M.Sc. or PhD in information technologies

TASKS

- Specify tasks on system and software level to create solutions/components
- Solve technical issues together with the team
- Identify ideas and possibilities to design new products
- Create a technical strategy within the team
- Support the team wherever necessary
- Discuss the strategy with technical experts
- Presentation of the current development state